BRYAN SPEAKS ON PEACE. Hon. W. J. Bryan was the principal speaker last night at the annual dinner of the Holland Society at the Walderf-Astoria in New York. His subject was "Peace." Among other things he said:
"Since my visit to the Netherlands my thoughts have been dwelling much upon the important part that little nation seems destined to take in the movement that has for its object the substitution of reason for force in the settlement of differences between nations. I have been recalling the stubborn fight made by its sturdy Dutch for liberty of conscience, freedom of speech and constitutional government, and have rejoiced that at last the fragrant flower of peace has appeared upon the thorny stalk of war. that the Temple of Peace should stand upon the ground that was the scene of an 80 years conflict, and I am glad that an American citizen has so generously provided for its construction. A prophet in olden times foretold the coming of an era of peace so universal and profound that to emphasize it he pictured it as extending even to the beasts. Are our eyes to witness the fulfillment of this prophecy? We must not expect all armies to be disbanded at once or look

Heaven is not gained by a single bound: We build the ladder by which we rise From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies And mount to its summit round by round.

for the immediate settlement of all questions by arbitration. Progress is "So with the advancement of the race. We press forward, often impatient of delay, but experience teaches us that as the trees that are strong enough to with-stand the storms do not mature quickly, so great reforms come by degrees. There is, however, reason to believe that the light of a better day is already breaking. When Elljah was fleeing from the wrath of Jezebel, and believed all the prophets to have been slain, the Lord commanded him to stand upon the mountain, and as he stood there a mighty wind swept by him and rent the rocks asunder, but God was not in the wind; and after the wind came an earthquake, but God was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but God was not in the fire; and after the fire a still, small voice, and it was the voice of God. Even so today, an increasing number of people throughout the world, standing upon the heights, are learning that God is not in the ironclads that sweep the ocean with their guns, nor in the armies that shake the earth with their tread, nor yet in the fire of the musketry, but in the still, small voice of justice that issues from tribunals like that recently instituted at The Hague. May this tribunal justify its creation and insure its perpetuity by judging the na-tions with righteousness and reproving with equity.
